Up Front from Behind by James B. Kobak, Jr. and The Associates by John Jay Osborn, Jr.

Written by NYSBA member and Foundation Board member Jim Kobak, Up Front from Behind is a rollicking satire of the stresses, hypocrisies and personality quirks in a large law firm written by a long-time partner at one such prominent firm and bar association leader. Ambition, greed, lust and pomposity all come under withering but hilarious attack in this fast-moving spoof of life in any large organization.

The Amazing Adventures of Kavalier & Clay

by Michael Chabon

The novel begins in 1939 with the arrival of 19-year-old Josef "Joe" Kavalier as a refugee in New York City, where he comes to live with his 17-year-old cousin, Sammy Klayman. With the help of his mentor, Joe escapes Nazi occupied Prague by hiding in a coffin. Joe leaves behind the rest of his family, including his younger brother Thomas. As the novel develops, both Joe and Sammy find their creative niches, one entrepreneurial, the other's artistic.

Suite Francaise

by Irene Nemirovsky

Beginning in Paris on the eve of the Nazi occupation in 1940, the book tells the remarkable story of men and women thrown together in circumstances beyond their control. As Parisians flee the city, human folly surfaces in every imaginable way: a wealthy mother searches for sweets in a town without food; a couple is terrified at the thought of losing their jobs, even as their world begins to fall apart.
