2016 ANNUAL REPORT

Lawyers caring. Lawyers sharing.
Around the corner. Around the state.

President's Message

The online definition of philanthropy, according to merriam-webster.com reads, "... the practice of giving money and time to help make life better for other people." In early 2016 I invited you to participate in our "Have an Impact" campaign to raise more funds toward our goal of doubling our grant program.

As you know, the grant program works to support those in need of legal assistance through non-profit legal service organizations, making life better for those desperately in need, across the entirety of New York State.

I am pleased to report that a great number of firsttime donors have helped us, by their donations to help others during 2016. Our very profession, a helping profession, parallels the goal of philanthropy to "make life better for other people." The profession of law is a calling that serves the public good. We provide a systemic matrix for the ordering of the affairs of our country and for the resolution of disputes. Lawyers serve the public. Because of you, The Foundation is able to advance our calling in many ways. Your gifts:

- assist in providing funds for our grant program to help legal service organizations offer assistance to those desperately in need;
- assist in providing fellowships and scholarships for law students to better hone their skills and offset their law school expenses;
- help demonstrate the caring side of the profession, highlighting how attorneys can and do make a difference, and
- assist in creating new funds to meet the changing needs of society, such as the new Hon. Judith S. Kaye Children and the Law Scholarship. This new and unique partnership of The Foundation and the NYSBA Children and the Law Committee (originally established by the New York State Permanent Judicial Commission on Justice for Children (Commission)) was formed to help in improving the lives and life chances of children involved with New York State courts.

I am proud to work with you, the Board of Directors, and staff of The Foundation in helping to make a difference in the lives of our community neighbors.

I invite you to read through this annual report to see how you have and can make a difference and thank you for your continued support.

John H. Gross
President

Together, We Can

"Alone we can do so little, together we can do so much." This quote credited to Helen Keller summarizes the year for The Foundation, as 2016 truly demonstrated how much we can accomplish together.

The year began with a new campaign launched during Annual Meeting week to assist The Foundation in our goal of raising more funds for the grant program. This was the first time The Foundation developed a fundraising initiative specifically for Annual Meeting week. Raising over $28,000 that week, with 44% of the participants being first-time donors, was the beginning of a productive year.

Together, we worked with the Young Lawyer Friends of The Foundation and Young Lawyers Section of the NYSBA to launch our first online 24-hour giving challenge. The goal was to generate $5,000 for the grant program to assist Veterans in need of legal services. The enthusiasm and commitment of this group and their social networks had us surpassing the goal.

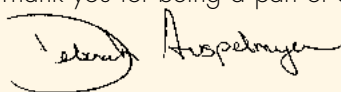

The Foundation and NYSBA partnered to assist those in need of legal services in Louisiana after the devastating floods ravaged their communities. More than $7,500 was raised, giving our New York colleagues an opportunity to make a difference outside of our region.

We launched the first "Firm Challenge" to recognize the firms that work with us as philanthropic partners. Firms from different geographic regions within New York State participated at various monetary levels helping to grow the grant program.

The Foundation explored new partnerships including the development of a new scholarship opportunity with the NYSBA Children and the Law Committee and the New York State Permanent Judicial Commission on Justice for Children to assist children aging out of foster care.

All of these efforts needed the commitment and involvement of many individuals. Together, we can make a difference in many ways.

Thank you for being a part of our efforts in 2016.

A Message to The Fellows

My holiday season begins with the purchase of a wreath for my front door to welcome friends, family and to signify everlasting life and growth. Desired Christmas gifts have moved away from gifts of store-bought items to gifts of experiences. Fellows are invited to join The Foundation to support all of its important work and experience the joy of making a difference in someone's life can have.

Our Foundation utilizes circles to signify various levels of giving and support. We proudly wear our ribbons, colored to signify the circles we belong to, for all to see. The ribbons are tangible evidence of our support of Foundation philanthropy and, much like a wreath on my door, invite friends and colleagues to talk about The Foundation and ways to grow and enhance their support. Not as evident, but just as important, is the result of these circles and the impact they can have on life and growth.

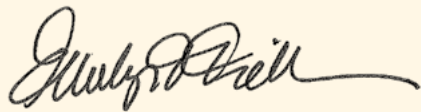

When you are invited to become involved in the Fellows it brings the honor of being recognized as a legal professional within your community who acknowledges that the practice of law is a helping profession and that attorneys, as custodians of the legal system, have enhanced obligations of service to the community, to the profession, and to promote justice through the rule of law.

The result of being a Fellow is supporting the grant program, providing funding for grants that in turn, provide life changing legal services for those in need to experience a better life: assisting an elderly person in keeping his or her home; helping to provide legal services for a woman who is being battered and not sure how to change her situation; giving a child from a broken adoption a chance to attain services that will get him on the road to a better life.

Like the wreath on my door, your gift as a Fellow comes full circle—helping to provide the gift of a better life for someone in need of the assistance of an attorney or legal organization.

Our new year will present many opportunities to support our worthy access to justice initiatives. Fellows around our state have gathered to network, enjoy a lecture, or both. I invite you to engage in conversation with Fellows when you see them at New York State Bar Association events. Go find a group of attorneys committed to giving the gift of support to those who are in need and to continue the gift of the circle of giving.

Respectfully,

Emily F. Franchina
Chair of The Fellows

The Grant Program Makes a Difference

The Foundation Awards More Than $580,000 in Charitable and Educational Grants Through The Grant Program

Ninety-nine nonprofit programs across New York were allocated grants totaling more than $580,000 from The New York Bar Foundation in 2016. "Contributions enabled us to provide at least one grant to each Judicial District across New York State," notes Lucia Whisenand, who chairs the Grant Committee.

Many of the organizations funded by The Foundation provide essential legal services to low-income individuals. They impact quality-of-life issues, such as senior homelessness prevention, human trafficking, immigration, veterans programs, wage justice, re-entry and domestic violence.

Funding for the grants comes from the generous contributions to The Foundation by lawyers, law firms, corporations and others. "The collective impact of The Foundation's donors complements local organizational efforts," explains Whisenand.

New York State Bar Association section and individual gifts make a positive impact on these programs. Through the generosity of the Association's General Practice Section, $25,000 was allocated for multiple pro bono initiatives.

Among the recipients was the Veteran's Pro Bono Project of Legal Assistance of Western

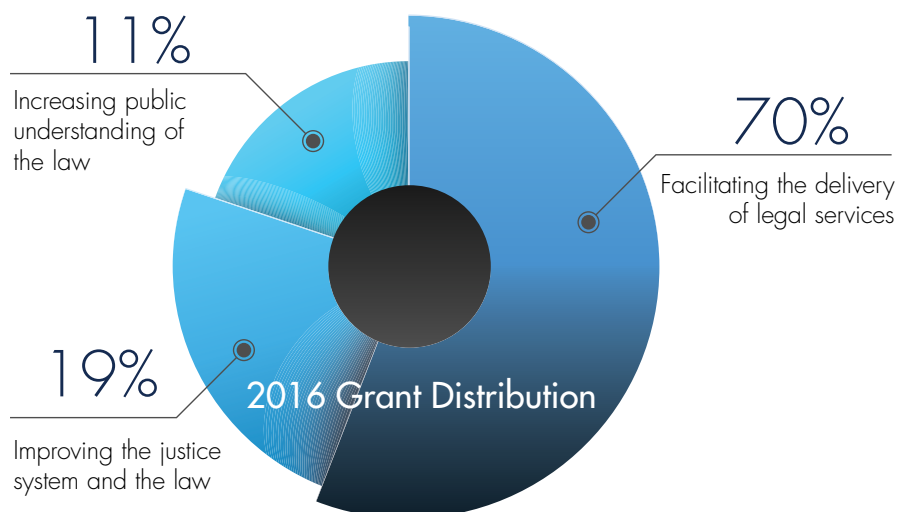

New York, Inc. The project helps veterans file fully developed claims for Veterans Affairs disability benefits, and assists with other VA issues, such as military discharge upgrades. The project is innovative in that it is based at the VA Medical Center in Canandaigua where veterans can consult with pro bono attorneys at the same location where they receive other veterans services. The project uses Rochester-based volunteer attorneys to serve a rural veteran population in counties with significantly fewer attorneys available to provide pro bono legal services.

"The section believes that this is a productive way to promote pro bono legal

Lucia B. Whisenand,
Chair of the Grants Committee efforts by general practice attorneys across the state," stated Emily F. Franchina, then chair of the General Practice Law Section. "Partnering with The Foundation to assist in fulfilling this need is a good way to help make a difference. The Foundation is familiar with the areas of need that are the focus of nonprofit programs. We are happy to help in increasing their efforts."

Together, We Can Make a Difference...

Your gifts help to make a difference in the lives of those in need of legal services. When added to the grant program, your gift grows and has an impact on people and organizations from the rural areas to major cities of New York. Thank you for making a difference as highlighted in the following stories.

For Veterans

Legal Assistance of Western New York, Inc., Geneva

In January 2014, Legal Assistance of Western New York, Inc. launched the Veterans Pro Bono project to help veterans file fully developed claims for VA disability benefits, and assist with other VA benefits issues such as military discharge upgrades. The project is based at the VA Medical Center in Canandaigua, NY where veterans can consult with their pro bono attorneys at the same location where they receive other veteran's services. The project uses Rochester based volunteer attorneys to serve a rural veteran population who live in counties with a significantly smaller bar and fewer pro bono attorneys available. Since 2014, they have responded to more than 1,200 calls from veterans and their family members through their Veterans Hotline.

Through your gifts, a Foundation grant helped enable them to work with a female veteran who experienced sexual assault in the Air Force in 1977. Following the assault, she attempted to file a report with her chain of command. Instead of following up on her report, the Air Force separated her from active duty for alcohol use and poor performance. For three decades the veteran struggled with drug and alcohol use, homelessness, multiple suicide attempts and relationship problems.

Over the years, the VA repeatedly denied her claims for disability benefits, always citing that there were no in-service reports of the sexual assault incident. The LawNY Veterans Pro Bono project was able to gather sufficient evidence and write a persuasive brief to overturn the VA's most recent denial. The veteran was found to be service connected at 100% with a retroactive award of $55,000. The veteran used part of the award to move into safe, suitable housing. She told us that the most important aspect of winning her claim was finally getting the government to acknowledge that her experience was real.

"Between January 2014 and September 2016 we assisted 70 veterans with VA disability benefit claims. We were able to assist an additional 41 veterans with a variety of other civil legal issues, including housing, SSDI/SSI, wills, consumer law, family law, health, and reentry. Thank you for your support."

Kaitlin Tharp
Administrator, Legal Assistance of Western New York, Inc.

For Domestic Violence Victims

Pace Women's Justice Center, White Plains

Pace Women's Justice Center received a grant for their Bridge the Gap Program. The program provides holistic legal services to low-income victims and survivors of domestic violence. The objective is to protect victims and survivors of abuse by providing them with the legal services they need to free themselves from abusive situations and move forward with their lives in safety.

"Tia" and her husband were married for 11 years and had two children together. During their marriage, her husband physically, emotionally and sexually abused her. Eventually, Tia's husband moved out of their house to live with a girlfriend, with whom he also had a violent relationship. Once he left, Tia discovered that her husband had not been paying their bills or rent, and eventually Tia and her children were evicted from their home.

When Tia came to Pace Women's Justice Center she was worried about her safety and that of her children, because every interaction with her husband or his girlfriend was volatile and threatening. She was also struggling to support herself and her children because her husband was not helping them financially. We helped "Tia" address her safety concerns by getting her an order of protection in Family Court. Then we started an action for divorce, filed for custody of the children, and child support. During the pendency of the divorce action, Tia's husband was stabbed by his girlfriend and the girlfriend also threatened to harm Tia and her children. With this information, we advocated on Tia's behalf and helped her to get sole custody, as well as enough child support so she could provide adequately for her children. Finally, we helped Tia to get her divorce, and secured half of her husband's pension as part of the settlement, which gave her greater long-term financial security.

"Our experience has shown, and research has corroborated, that access to free legal services is one of the most important factors in enabling victims of domestic violence to leave an abusive situation and move forward with their lives in safety. We are so grateful for the continuing support from The New York Bar Foundation that allows us to reach out to more clients and assist those in desperate need of legal services." Cindy J. Kanusher, Executive Director, Pace Women's Justice Center.

*"Our experience has shown,
and research has corroborated, that access to free legal services is one of the most important factors in enabling victims of domestic violence to leave an abusive situation and move forward with their lives in safety."*

For a Young Man to Begin a New Life in the United States

The Door – A Center of Alternatives, Inc., New York

The Door received a grant for the Representation and Support of Undocumented Immigrant Children Facing Deportation Program. The purpose of The Door's program is to prevent undocumented immigrant children from being returned to countries of origin where their lives would be in danger.

"Julian" (age 19) was born in Guatemala and grew up in a rural village. His parents made him leave school in the 4th grade to support the family income by working in the fields under harsh conditions. Julian grew up with an abusive father, who would often get drunk and hit Julian with a belt, a pot, or whatever else was at hand, leaving scars that the young man still carries. At the age of 16, Julian fled his abusive home and made the dangerous journey to the United States. He was apprehended at the border and placed in removal (deportation) proceedings. We met Julian during our regular intake at Immigration Court. Fortunately, Julian had a cousin who gave him a home in New York City. We successfully petitioned the Family Court to appoint Julian's cousin as his guardian, and to make factual findings necessary for Julian to petition for Special Immigrant Juvenile Statutes. Based on that petition, the Immigration Judge terminated his removal case. Julian received his green card in March 2016, and is now studying English and working part time, well on his way to transitioning successfully into a stable life.

"The Door is grateful to The New York Bar Foundation for supporting our work to ensure that immigrant children fleeing violence abroad are able to remain safely in the United States."

Eve Stotland
Director of Legal Services, The Door

For Those in Need in Louisiana

Efforts Help Louisianans With Flood-Related Legal Needs

The compassion of attorneys extended outside of New York when The Foundation and the NYSBA asked our networks to help those in need from the devastating Louisiana flood. A call for assistance generated over $7,500 in donations that were sent to the Louisiana Bar Foundation to assist with flood recovery grants to address victims' legal needs.

Through the Louisiana Bar Foundation grants were awarded to Acadiana Legal Services Corporation, Legal Services of North Louisiana, Southeast Louisiana Legal Services Corporation, Baton Rouge Bar Foundation/Pro Bono Project and Lafayette Bar Foundation/Pro Bono Project. The grants helped address client legal needs such as: legal help with FEMA applications and denials of recovery benefits, successions to obtain recovery benefits, contract disputes and fraud, evictions and landlord-tenant disputes, public benefits such as emergency food assistance, and increased domestic violence and family law problems.

"We are honored and privileged to count The New York Bar Foundation as a partner and are grateful for your support of the Louisiana Bar Foundation."

E. Jane Sherman
President of the Louisiana Bar Foundation

Circle of Giving Members

The Circle of Giving categories recognize individual Fellows who have made a major commitment to The Foundation by contributing or pledging to contribute gifts ranging from $3,000 to $50,000.

All Fellows are invited to enhance their pledge by becoming a member of a Circle of Giving or moving to a higher circle. Each Fellow becomes a Life Member of a Circle upon fulfillment of the pledge.

The Foundation thanks all our esteemed Fellows for their support.

24-hour Challenge Assists Veterans

On November 10, 2016 the Young Lawyer Friends of The Foundation and Young Lawyers Section came together to promote the first online 24-hour giving challenge. The goal was to raise $5,000 for The Foundation's grant program specifically to go to assist Veterans in need of legal services via non-profit organizations throughout the state.

Through social media attorneys, their families, colleagues, and friends were invited to come together for this initiative. Participants had the opportunity to be on the leaderboard and compete for being the top fundraiser, most social, and the team that generated the most donations.

John Christopher of Sahn Ward Coschignano, PLLC took the honor of being the top fundraiser and the most social. "I am so happy that we were able to accomplish and exceed our goal with this event," said Christopher. "My inspiration for this event was my Grandfather, Paul L. Christopher, who left high school at age 16 to go fight in WWII in the United States Army. He was honorably discharged and received the Purple Heart after being injured by a piece of shrapnel. My Grandfather passed away many years ago, but I have always kept his memory with me."

Over $7,500 was raised which will be applied to the 2017 grant cycle for programs that assist veterans with legal services.

"I think the legal profession is an honorable and giving one. In the spirit of giving, I was happy to help with, and participate in the NY Lawyers Help A Veteran 24-Hour Giving Challenge," said Erica M. Hines, Esq. Heslin Rothenberg Farley & Mesiti P.C., chair of the Young Lawyers Section. "Our veterans selflessly serve our entire nation – I'm so glad that young lawyers could do something to give back to those who make such a huge sacrifice, and I am elated to have been a part of it."

Thank you to all participants in this challenge:

Young Lawyer Friends of The Foundation Giving Group

The Young Lawyer Friends of The Foundation (YLFOF) giving group was established in 2015, as a new partnership between The Foundation and the Young Lawyers Section. The mission of the YLFOF is to engage and inspire young lawyers to understand and promote the goals of The Foundation. Members act as ambassadors for The Foundation, promoting its mission while assisting in raising additional resources to support legal services through The Foundation's grant program. The group encompasses anyone within the New York State Bar Association in practice ten years or less.

"I'm so glad the challenge went even better than expected. I'm happy to be involved because it's such a small way to make a big difference," said Sarah Gold, Of Counsel DeFio Kean PLC. "I'm particularly proud of the efforts of the Young Lawyers Section and the way they've embraced the efforts of The Foundation. It's a great way to bring visibility to the causes important to the support of justice and the organizations that do that important work."

A member of the YLFOF will make an annual financial contribution of at least $30 to The Foundation.

Enriching the Legal Profession

Through generous gifts from the New York State Bar Association Sections and donors, law students from across New York State are able to apply for fellowships and scholarships that provide invaluable educational opportunities.

Two new scholarships were created in 2016 in memory of Chief Judge Judith S. Kaye: the Honorable Judith S. Kaye Children and the Law Committee Scholarship, and the Honorable Judith S. Kaye Commercial and Federal Litigation Scholarship. Both scholarships were established in honor of Judge Kaye's passion and commitment to making a difference through the legal profession.

In total, more than $90,000 was distributed, giving students the platform and knowledge to build a solid base for their career goals. The impact of these experiences on each student as they begin their professional pathway is remarkable. Thank you to our generous donors and Sections that support these invaluable programs.

Foundation and Commercial Federal Litigation Section Create New Scholarship Opportunity for Women

Through a gift from the Commercial & Federal Litigation Section of the New York State Bar Association, The Foundation and Section proudly created the Honorable Judith S. Kaye Commercial and Federal Litigation Scholarship to provide up to 5 junior female litigators to attend the Commercial & Federal Litigation Trial Academy which is held every other year in the Spring.

After a rigorous review of numerous submissions from women litigators throughout the State, the Scholarship was awarded to five female junior litigators from a variety of backgrounds who displayed the outstanding qualifications and ambition to become first-rate commercial litigators. "It was gratifying to see so many qualified professionals apply for this prestigious honor," noted Lauren Wachtler, a former Chair of the Section and member of the selection committee. "The Kaye Scholarships recognize women litigators from a variety of backgrounds throughout the State, with the goal of increasing the number of women in the profession."

The Kaye Scholars for this inaugural award were:

Jessica Clemente, a fourth year associate with Ward Greenberg Heller & Reidy LLP, a Rochester based law firm, practices business and commercial litigation, personal injury, medical malpractice, toxic tort defense and intellectual property litigation.

Tara N. Gaston, from Saratoga Springs, focuses primarily on antitrust, healthcare law, medical malpractice and family law and is a founding member of the Birth Rights Bar Association.

Alexis Marquez is as the Commercial Division Law Clerk to Hon. Saliann Scarpulla in Supreme Court, New York County.

Stacey E. Trien, an associate with Leclair, Korona, Vahey, Cole, LLP, in Rochester, practices commercial and employment litigation in state and federal court.

Alissa M. Fortuna-Valentine, an associate at the Rochester office of Phillips Lytle LLP, focuses her practice on business litigation with particular emphasis on labor and employment law.

"This is truly an honor and wonderful tribute to our mother."

Luisa Kaye

Each of these women earned the designation to be called a Kaye Scholar. The Scholarship will cover each awardee's registration fee to the Section's 2017 Commercial Litigation Academy to be held in May 2017.

"This is truly an honor and wonderful tribute to our mother who was a leader in championing women in the profession and a mentor to so many in their careers," Luisa Kaye, a practicing attorney herself, said on behalf of the Kaye family.

The goal of the Kaye Scholarship is to increase the number of women taking a leadership role in commercial cases litigated in both the state and federal courts in New York.

"Establishing this scholarship in Judge Kaye's name is the Section's way of honoring her and the remarkable impact she had on the legal profession and in blazing a pathway for female attorneys," said Mark A. Berman, chair of the Section.

New Scholarship Opportunity for Students Aging Out of Foster Care Developed

As a special project of the New York State Bar Association Children and the Law Committee with a gift from the PJCJC Fund, Inc. of the Permanent Judicial Commission on Justice for Children to The Foundation, a new scholarship was established to honor the memory and passion of the late Judith S. Kaye, the first woman Chief Judge of the State of New York.

The purpose of the scholarship is to support young people who age out of foster care and are attending an accredited post-secondary college or institution. In Judge Kaye's words,

Every child in our country is entitled to an education sufficient to permit her to lead our great nation through this new century. We must continue to strive to provide better supports for our children to allow them to succeed – to nurture and help them achieve their dreams and aspirations. Only then will we have met our responsibility of not only keeping our children safe but also encouraging them to thrive and be successful.

Seven students from across New York State were selected to receive a 2016-17 scholarship.

This unique partnership aligns the missions of The Foundation, the Children and the Law Committee, the Commission on Justice for Children and the passion of Chief Judge Kaye to help in improving the lives and life chances of children involved with New York State courts.

Fellowships

Antitrust Section Law Student Fellowship

Four students were presented with $6,000 fellowships to work on antitrust and related matters in the public sector in the State of New York. The fellowship provides law students an opportunity to experience antitrust practice during the summer after their first or second year of law school and increase the representation of lawyers from a diverse range of backgrounds in the practice of antitrust law in New York. Recipients included Ken Edelson, Michael Joseph Perez, Seema Rambaran, and Iantha Stewart.

"My experience helped me grow as a law student and a young legal professional. I can attest to how difficult it is when you do not have any family or friends that are an attorney. The legal field requires you to write, speak, think, and act a certain way. Without guidance the legal field can be an uninviting, unfamiliar, and overwhelming place to start a career. The NYSBA Antitrust Section Fellowship gave me the invaluable experience of working with some of the most talented attorneys in the country. As a result, I have learned what it takes to operate at the very top of the legal profession... I have started my second year at CUNY

School of Law having improved as a legal researcher and writer. But most importantly as an aspiring attorney." Michael Joseph Perez, CUNY School of Law, fulfilled his fellowship at the Department of Justice Antitrust Division

My experience at the FTC was a rewarding one and I am so grateful to have been a recipient of this Fellowship. The unique opportunity afforded to me through this program has reinforced my interest in the legal profession and further advanced my desire to work in the areas of antitrust and consumer protection." Seema Rambaran, Maurice A. Deane School of Law at Hofstra University, fulfilled her fellowship at the Northeast Region office of the Federal Trade Commission

"The entire ten weeks that I spent at the New York Attorney General's office was valuable and a great learning experience. Everyone there was a joy to work with and I learned so much from them. They taught me great lawyering skills, especially concerning attention to detail, negotiation, professionalism, ethical concerns, and analysis. Overall, it was a fantastic fellowship opportunity." Iantha Stewart, Brooklyn Law School, fulfilled her fellowship at the Office of the New York Attorney General, Antitrust Bureau

Commercial and Federal Litigation

The $6,000 Fellowship was awarded to a student to spend the summer working on Commercial Division matters in the Chambers of Justice Anil C. Singh, of Commercial and Federal Litigation Department of the New York State Supreme Court.

"I have returned to Maurice A. Deane School of Law at Hofstra University with an awakening as to the greater sense of responsibility entrusted to me, a renewed drive to strive for excellence as my time here lays the foundation for my future. This fellowship experience was an invaluable one as it has reinforced a strong work ethic, developed my research, writing, and critical thinking skills. I have also learned to be creative within the parameters of the law. I am more determined to be a better colleague and advocate and realize the value of respectfully standing by your convictions and not being afraid to speak up, even if what you have to say might go against the majority. No classroom experience can replace the valuable lessons gained from the actual practice of law. Those experiences are varied and include, but are not limited to human interaction; legal creativity; research; succinct yet persuasive writing, both overtly and subtly; the intricacies of the court system; and other areas where a law degree is beneficial outside the practice of law." Simone Isaac, Maurice A. Dean School of Law at Hofstra University (Pictured with Ryan Larson from the Admissions Office of Hofstra University.)

Corporate Counsel

The $6,000 fellowship occurs at a New York public interest legal or charitable organization. The student assists the organization's general counsel (or other similar individual holding a counsel position) with matters relating to counsel or advice to the organization.

"It was truly an honor to serve as Corporate Counsel Fellow with the Urban Justice Center's Community Development Project. This placement engaged all aspects of my legal and professional experience while also allowing me to explore my interests and develop new passions. I walk away with a breadth of knowledge about corporate governance, nonprofit laws and the incredible work of the CDP's community based partner organizations."

The Health Law Section

The $5,000 fellowship was awarded to three law students to work in Health law positions in the State of New York during the summer. Recipients included Omar Mustafa, Brooklyn Law School who worked with Montefiore Medical Center; Amira Privott-Yeiser, Fordham University School of Law, who worked NYU Medical Center; and Brian Miguel Salazar, Yeshiva University Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law, who worked with NYC Health + Hospitals.

The experience at Montefiore not only provided me with invaluable work experience but also allowed me to get to know a group of truly remarkable people. I left work every day feeling accomplished and that I was truly able to contribute to the work that my colleagues were doing. I leave this experience with the utmost respect for the hard work and devotion that every single person at Montefiore Medical Center displayed." Omar Mustafa

"This fellowship will allow me to provide my service, time, and dedication to a career that helps others in need and sustains one of the world's largest and fastest-growing industries. It is immeasurably wonderful because I will gain real-world experience, and hopefully one day increase the diversity of the attorneys involved in health law. I will forge relationships that will enable me to grow as a person and increase and expand my professional network. The New York University Langone Medical Center is an extremely reputable organization located in the heart of the city, and sincerely has a medical program that is among the best. I am eternally grateful to all of the people who have helped me achieve this accomplishment, and to all of the people affiliated with the New York Bar Association's Health Law Section who have helped to create and develop this fellowship." Amira Privott-Yeiser

Trusts and Estates Law Section Fellowship

The Fellowship provides students an opportunity to experience trusts and estates law practice through supervised experience in the chambers of the Hon. John M. Owens, Monroe County Surrogate's Court; the Hon. Stacy L. Petit, Albany County Surrogate's Court; and the Honorable Brandon R. Sall, Westchester Surrogate's Court. Three $5,000 fellowships were awarded.

"I spent the summer of 2016 working in the Monroe County Surrogate's Court with the Honorable John M. Owens. This has been the most enjoyable and educational experience of law school so far. I am a strong believer that practical experience is the best (and sometimes only) way to learn. I know that my experience in this Fellowship has further developed both my academic interest in law, and practical interest in estate practice. I am extremely grateful for the opportunity afforded me and highly recommend this program to anybody similarly interested." Matthew J. Eaves, SUNY Buffalo Law School, the chambers of Judge Owens

"Overall this was one of my best summers ever – the experience was very positive, filled with learning a lot about the law, doing substantive work, observing the practice of law at its best (and sometimes worst), and getting to know a lot of great people working in the court. The fellowship enhanced my education by letting me see the contrast of legal procedure with real legal practice. Though the court procedures were very specific and peculiar, the actual practice of law was something else. I really like how he court administered justice while trying to get parties to work things out. To watch the judges and the court attorneys work their skills in finding order in a lot of chaos was something wonderful. My last day at the court was bittersweet, because I was leaving the court I loved being a part of."

Benjamin P. Lin, Maurice Deane School of Law at Hofstra University, the chambers of Judge Sall

"The most exciting part of the summer was being able to watch lawyers conduct themselves in the Surrogate's Court. Not all attorneys function in court equally. When there was a controversy in front of the court, some attorneys came in the door as poised and polished professionals who curtly and succinctly suggested a solution to the court. Other attorneys expressed their lack of knowledge when pleading for extensions on routine tasks. After a summer of watching a spectrum of attorneys at work, I learned by observing what works and what does not work. I could not be more grateful for the opportunity the New York Bar Foundation has afforded me. The experiences I had and the lessons I'll take from working at the Surrogate's Court are unlike anything I could have done in a classroom." Jonathan Moberg, the chambers of Judge Pettit

Scholarships

The Honorable Joel K. Asarch Elder Law and Special Needs Section Scholarship

Established through a gift from the Elder Law and Special Needs Section of The New York State Bar Association, the $2,500 scholarship is awarded to a law student who demonstrates an interest in the legal rights of the elderly or those with disabilities. The 2016 recipient was Julie Gilgoff.

"The receipt of the Joel K. Asarch Elder Law and Special Needs Scholarship will allow me to pursue my studies, while engaging in a number of extracurricular activities including Moot Court and a semester-internship at the National Labor Relations Board. I am grateful to The New York Bar Foundation and the Elder Law and Special Needs Section for providing this opportunity." Julie Gilgoff, CUNY School of Law

Real Property Law Section Melvyn Mitzner Scholarship

The scholarship was established through a gift from the Real Property Law Section of the New York State Bar Association (NYSBA) and from Rosalyn Mitzner honors the memory of Melvyn Mitzner, a former Chair of the Section. The $5,000 scholarship is awarded to law student that honors Mr. Mitzner's commitment to professional achievement in the area of real property law including legal writing, lecturing and scholarship; and diversity in the profession. The 2016 recipient was Nicholas Zapp.

"Receiving the Melvyn Mitzner Scholarship is a great honor. I am extremely grateful to attain an award that is dedicated to Mr. Mitzner who embodied all of the values that my generation should follow. Also, I am excited about being a part of the NYSBA Real Property Law Section as I start my career as an attorney at McNamee, Lochner, Titus and Williams, P.C. in Albany this summer." Nicholas Zapp, Albany Law School

The Real Property Law Section Lorraine Power Tharp Scholarship

The scholarship was established through a gift from the Real Property Law Section of the New York State Bar Association (NYSBA) to honor the memory of Lorraine Power Tharp, Esq., a former Chair of the Section and a former President of the Association. The $5,000 scholarship is awarded to a law student who best exemplifies the core values important to Lorraine – academic excellence, a demonstrated interest in public service, high integrity and an interest in real property law. The 2016 recipient was David Ullman, Columbia Law School.

"Lorraine Power Tharp was a distinguished and path breaking real estate attorney with years of service to the New York State Bar Association and countless other community organizations. I am very honored to accept the 2016 Tharp Scholarship in her memory and thank the Real Property Law Section and The New York Bar Foundation for their support." David Ullman, Columbia Law School

Judge Bernard Meyer Scholarship

Established in 2004 by the law firm, Meyer, Suozzi, English & Klein, P.C., the scholarship is awarded to a law school student who excels in legal writing and advocacy skills. The $5,000 scholarship is awarded to one student.

The 2016 recipient was Loraine Jelinek who wrote her essay on "The Criminalization of Indebtedness: The Contemporary Legal Ideologies of Debtors' Prisons and the Recent Revivification of Peonage."

Thanks to the generosity of donors and Meyer, Suozzi, English & Klein, P.C., the Judge Bernard Meyer Scholarship has been awarded for over 10 years.

Past recipients include:

2005—Jessica (Satriano) Moller
Albany Law School

2006—Kathryn (Basal) Jerian
Albany Law School

2007—Robert Manfredo

2015—Rafaqat Cheema
Hofstra Law School

2016—Loraine Jelinek
Albany Law School

Jessica Satriano Moller, the first recipient of the scholarship notes, "I had the good fortune to be the first recipient of this scholarship. Not only did its financial assistance help me with tuition and allow me to focus on my studies without added stress about resources, but the scholarship provided me with a vote of confidence about my chosen area of study. The timing of the award was also beneficial, as I received it when I just started working as a 2L summer associate (for the firm I ultimately went to after law school) and my receipt of this scholarship surely reflected well on my abilities to my future employer."

More and more, people are turning to The New York Bar Foundation to help achieve our collective vision of providing access to justice for all, improving the justice system and the law, and enhancing the legal profession.

Foundation Launched Firm Challenge in 2016

As part of the fundraising initiatives for 2016, The Foundation developed a firm challenge. Law firms from different geographic regions within New York State participated at various monetary levels generating nearly $60,000 to assist the grant program.

Sullivan and Cromwell, LLP Presented the Lead Firm Gift

Joseph C. Shenker, Chairman and Senior Partner of Sullivan & Cromwell LLP, presented a $25,000 check to Martin Minkowitz, Foundation Board member and Co-chair of The Foundation's Firm Giving/Corporate Sponsorships Task Force. Minkowitz is joined by Foundation Board member and Co-chair of The Firm Giving/Corporate Sponsorships Task Force, Lauren J. Wachtler (far left) and Foundation Executive, Deborah Auspelmyer (far right).

The international law firm of Sullivan and Cromwell, LLP, presented the lead check for $25,000 to The Foundation in memory of their past partner and valued friend, Robert M. MacCrate who passed in early 2016.

"It is an honor to present this gift to The Foundation in Bob's memory and help in kicking off the firm challenge," said

Chairman of Sullivan & Cromwell, LLP Joseph C. Shenker. "Bob was a wonderful partner, great colleague and valued friend who was instrumental to the growth of The Foundation."

The Foundation thanks our philanthropic partners and recognizes the following firms for helping to make a difference to our grant program.

Foundation Recognized for Philanthropy by New York Nonprofit Publication

The New York Bar Foundation was recognized for its philanthropic efforts with a Cause Award from New York Nonprofit (NYN) Media in New York City.

"Out of nearly 100 nominations from worthy individuals and organizations, The New York Bar Foundation was selected by New York Nonprofit Media to win a Cause Award in philanthropy for being responsive to the current pressing social services issues challenging low-income individuals throughout the state—such as human trafficking, community re-entry and immigration—and for growing their capacity to fund organizations working to address those challenges," said Aimée Simpier, Editor-at-Large, New York Nonprofit Media.

This recognition is a wonderful accolade to the thousands of attorneys that work with us and support us in making a difference. The Foundation was honored to accept the award on behalf of attorneys across New York who endeavor to make a difference.

In addition to philanthropy, NYN Media also presented awards in the areas of aging; criminal justice; disability/access; education; employment; food insecurity; homelessness/housing; overall sector support; mental/behavioral health; and youth development.

The New York Bar Foundation Is Honored To Accept This Recognition on Behalf of All of The Attorneys That Help Us Fulfill Our Mission!
