

The New York Bar Foundation 2023 Kay Crawford Murray Commercial Division Diversity Fellowship

The New York Bar Foundation is pleased to announce the 2023 Kay Crawford Murray Commercial and Federal Litigation Section Diversity Fellowship which has been established by The New York Bar Foundation through a gift from the Commercial and Federal Litigation Section of the New York State Bar Association. The Fellowship will be awarded to a current first year (1L) diversity law student who is enrolled in a law school in the State of New York to work in a litigation position in the public sector in the State of New York during the summer of 2023.

Diversity Fellowship Program Goals

To increase the representation of lawyers and students from a diverse range of backgrounds in commercial litigation, and to provide students with an opportunity to experience litigation practice. The ultimate goal of the Fellowship is to create a network and forge relationships which will foster greater diversity among commercial and federal litigators throughout the State of New York. Through the Fellowship, a student will be provided a meaningful and appropriately supervised work experience in the Chambers of Justice Margaret Chan of the Commercial Division of the Supreme Court of New York, New York County, 60 Centre Street, New York, NY.

The Fellowship

The Fellowship, valued at $6,000, will be awarded to one (1) student to spend the summer of 2023 (10 weeks) working on Commercial Division matters in the Chambers of Justice Margaret Chan, of the Commercial Division of the Supreme Court of New York, New York County, 60 Centre Street, New York, NY.

1. The Fellow will be a guest member of the NYSBA Commercial and Federal Litigation Section for one year starting with the award of the Fellowship.
2. The Fellowship will be awarded during the month of March 2023 and the official presentation will occur in or about mid-May 2023.

Eligibility

The Fellowship is open to all first-year (1L) students as of Fall 2022 semester that are enrolled in a law school in the State of New York and who are capable of fulfilling the requested work hours and responsibilities. The student must be a member of one of the following racial/ethnic groups: Black/African American; Latino/a; Native American or Alaskan Native; Asian or Pacific Islander.

Fellowship Length

The Fellowship will take place during the summer of 2023 for a period of ten weeks from June 2023 to August 2023. The work requirement per week is 35 hours at the minimum but should not exceed 40 hours.

Location of Fellowship

The 2023 Fellowship will take place in the Commercial Division, in the Chambers of Justice Margaret Chan. Fellowship finalists will be interviewed in New York City.

Payment of Fellowship

The student will receive $3,000 during the month of June from The Foundation with the remaining $3,000 paid to the student during the month of August.

Housing and Other Expense

Housing, transportation, and all other expenses to participate in the Fellowship will be provided by the student.
